Ad Text At the Last Supper Jesus says:

He said to them, "But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one."
— Luke 22:36

What does that mean? Jesus always stood for peace and non-violence. But enemies often issued threats towards Him and His disciples. There's always was a risk for them to be arrested and subjected to a great violence, and be followed with rage and persecution; so that they might seem to stand in need of swords to defend them: the phrase is expressive of the danger they would be exposed to, and of their need of protection.

And we, American Christians, should remember about it. Sometimes you have to arm yourself to protect your loved ones and friends.
